RETAINER AGREEMENT UNCONTESTED DIVORCE

Client's Name & Address:

Date: _____

Dear Sir or Madam:

This letter confirms that you have retained the Law Offices of Brian D. Perskin for the purposes of obtaining an uncontested divorce.

The fee for said uncontested divorce is $_____. This fee includes court costs, which shall be paid by Brian D. Perskin. This is a minimum fee, and no part shall be returned to the client. The entire fee is earned upon preparation of documents, regardless of whether the papers are filed in Court.

It is expressly understood as follows:

1. That this fee does not include court appearances, settlement conferences or negotiated (written) stipulations of settlement;
2. That any necessity for the above will be considered by the Client and the Firm to render this matter a Contested Divorce; and
3. That if this matter becomes contested, a new fee agreement will be negotiated, and another retainer, which conforms to the Rules Governing The Conduct of Lawyers in Matrimonial Actions will be signed prior to any services being rendered in regard to a Contested Matrimonial proceeding.

The client understands that despite any and all good faith negotiations, this matter may not be resolved. In the event that the matter becomes contested, the fee paid towards this retainer may be credited to the Contested Retainer. Any credit will be granted at the discretion of Brian D. Perskin.

On this date, an amount of $_____ has been deposited for the purposes of setting up a file, obtaining information, and sending a letter to the opposing side.

The entire balance of the above total agreed upon fee is due prior to the submission of the appropriate papers to the matrimonial clerk.

You hereby acknowledge receipt of the attached Notice of Automatic Orders (D.R.L. 236) and have been notified that same shall become binding on the Plaintiff upon commencing an action (i.e. filing of a Summons) and binding on the Defendant upon service of the Summons. In an uncontested divorce proceeding the Automatic Orders shall be waived by the parties upon execution of an Affidavit of Defendant and Affidavit of Plaintiff.

Very truly yours,

Brian D. Perskin

I have read and understand the above letter, I have received a copy of it and accept all of its terms.
